

OSHA 10-hr General Industry

OSHA 10-hr General Industry

Course Description:

This training course covers a variety of Industry related safety topics such as: An Introduction to OSHA, electrical safety, fall protection, personal protective equipment, OSHA inspections and penalties, materials handling, hazardous materials, emergency action plans, and Hazard Communication. We will emphasize hazard identification, avoidance, and control. This course reviews and discusses best practices, while also showing examples of improper practices that have led to real life accidents.

Course Objective:

This course is designed to provide you with an overview of fundamental OSHA standards, and assist you with enhancing your compliance efforts. The offering will be customized to the topics that will best enhance the programs at your facility.

Course Length:

10-hours - available in one or two day sessions.

Target Audience:

- Management
- Supervisors/Foreman
- Anyone working in, or responsible for, OSHA compliance.

General Industry 30-hr is also available for managers and supervisors. Call for details, pricing and scheduling availability.